I WORRY: A VIDEO INSTALLATION BY THE SPOTLIGHT PROJECT

The Spotlight Project is in need of participants to volunteer fifteen minutes of their time for a video project called "I Worry" which will be exhibited as a three-channel video installation January 2011. The purpose of I Worry is to examine the significance of our commonplace concerns.

Volunteers are needed to read aloud five of their most prominent worries on camera. The worries selected to be read on camera could be those that come up the most frequently or carry the most weight.

CALL FOR PARTICIPANTS

Participants will be asked to write down their five most prominent worries in advance and read them aloud in front of the camera.

Shooting will take place over the weekend of May 29th and 30th from 10:00am - 9:00pm. Participants will be booked in 10 minute time slots. We are asking volunteers to arrive 10 minutes early to fill out a questionnaire in advance. A detailed Project Description can be viewed on www.thspotlightproject.ca.
